This afternoon the steamer Kinking, bylonging to the Hongkong, Ornton & Macao Steamboat Company, Limited, was sold by public auction by Mr J. M. Armstrong. The vessel was sold with all her machinery. engines, stores, furniture, fittings and appurtenances, with the exception of the steam windless, anchors and chain cables. fire pumps and houses. This afternoon Mr A. J. Roberton, an English artist, exhibited a number of his pictures in the St. Audrew's Hall: The collection is a very interesting one and includes both oil-paintings and watercolours. Most of the oil paintings are representations of charming bits of English 1.00 scopery. Mr Roberton has done a lot of work in the South of England, and while many of the pictures beat the same titles they depict different scanes and different seasons. The more familiar scenes are Near Tanbridge Wells, Bear Torquay, 0.40 On the Medway, and On the Dart, South Devon. The landscapes are well chosen and excellently painted. The artist manages to catch the varying effects of light upon the water, while his treatment Good Leeward Island ... $1.50 per Gal. of foliage, whether in the pristing freshness of spring, the full glow of summer, or the rich colours of autumn, is replete with true artistic feeling. Among the oil-paintings is a view on the reservoir at Singapore with which probably many of our readers are familiar. The water-colours are mostly smaller in size, but are sriistically as valuable. Mr Roberton has taken full advantage of his travels in the East, and his collection comprises views from India, Penang, Singapore, Hongkong and Kowloon, as well as some from Trinidad, West Indies. These are bin handscapes which are sure to attrace considerable attention from visitors to the St. Andrews Hall. where the pictures will be again on exhibition to morrow afternoon. One charming vista from the Botanical Gardens, giving a. glimpse of the harbour, is a particularly pleasing piece of artistic work.

JAPAN AND THE WORLD'S FAIR. - A Chicago. telegram, dated. February 12, says -Tegima, representative of the Mikado of Japan, appeared before the South Park commissioners, to day, and laid before them a remarkable offer on the part of the Government of Japan. He told the board that Japan wanted to put a stone building in Jackson park, lay out Jananese gardens all around it, fill the building with rare works of art, and then give everything to the city of Chicago. Tegima also said that the Government of Japan would vote an annual appropriation to keep up the buildings and gardens. That was all he said. President Donneroberger asked Tegims to put his offer on paper, and Tegima nodded assent. The proposed building and gardens will be part of that Government's display at the World's Fair. The sum of $60,000 will be spent for the building, which is to be a reproduction of one of the historical structures of the Flowery King-

Two of their recent escapades will be fresh in the memory of our readers. One was the murder of a French officer; the other, the robbery of the treasury. When the three assassing were arrested and placed upon their trial, it transpired that the motive of their crime has been nothing more profound than to obtain possession of their victim's clothes. There is at the present time in Colombo, says the Times of Ceylon, a visitor of the name of Edelmann, who is the guest in Kandy of Major Byrde. Mr Edelmann is by birth a Pole, but became a naturalised British subject as long ago as 1854. He is a cosmopolitum, speaking all the principal European languages, as well as Acabic. Ho has travelled on all the continents and says that all the geography he knows he learnt with his feet; while, as he can relate experiences in places so far separated as Paris and the Sandwich Isles, and Moibourne and Peru, it is evident that he has travelled much. In other ways he is a botanist, a chemist, a practical sugmess and a geologist, with no small astronomi cal knowledge-though this latter pursuit he has not followed for some years as he declares the science to be like gembling, all who attempt to dive into it becoming all absorbed in it as the gambler does in
